WHAT WERE THE FUND COSTS FOR THE PAST YEAR? (based on a hypothetical $10,000 investment)

Class Name	Costs of a $10,000 investment	Costs paid as a percentage of a $10,000 investment
Institutional Shares	$120	1.07%

HOW DID THE FUND PERFORM LAST YEAR AND WHAT AFFECTED ITS PERFORMANCE?

The year ending June 30, 2024 for US small cap growth stocks was fair yet slightly soft versus larger cap peers as the Russell 2000® Growth Index (the benchmark) rose by +9.14% versus the S&P 500® Index's +24.54% gain. Hood River's investment team remained diligent in identifying stocks we viewed as mispriced, leading to a +23.87% return for our US Small Cap Growth Fund Institutional Share Class (HRSMX) over the same period.

As is typical given our fundamental research process, the majority of the strategy's alpha for the quarter was driven by stock selection. Sectors contributing the most to stock selection included industrials, consumer discretionary, and health care. Only two sectors detracted from outperformance: information technology and utilities.

The team remains diligent in ensuring our portfolio is comprised of our best ideas balanced against our sell discipline. Valuations amongst small caps remain attractive on an absolute and relative basis, and the prospects of rate cuts bodes well for the group. We greatly appreciate your confidence in, and partnership with, Hood River.
